

Rosie And The Chick

By Kate Leung, 1E

One day, a girl called Rosie went to the woods to find berries. Behind a bush, she noticed something yellow and shivering. It was a little chick. "Why are you crying?" Rosie asked. The chick said, sobbing, "I am lost." So Rosie promised to take the chick home. On the way, they met a sly fox who invited them to tea. They refused and quickly escaped because the fox looked hungry. Rosie took the chick home safely. Mommy chick thanked Rosie and gave her berries. When Rosie's mommy heard of what happened she was proud of Rosie's bravery and kindness.
