

TITLE: Beans in the kitchen.

By: Katria Bang

This story is about four little beans. They lives together in the kitchen. Since the little beans were born they play together.

One day a chef comes in to the kitchen and want to cook. He looks around for ingredients. The chef saw the four little bean perfect for making soup!

When the chef want to cook the beans, the beans panic. They start to roll away with their round bodys, hidding in different corner.

The chef keeps looking around but cannot find them. Finally the chef decides to give up and make corn soup. The beans are safe now, they shouted hooray!