Once upon a time, there were a boy named Lachlan, and a girl named Lilah. They both studied in a school called CAIS.

One day after they went back home from school, Lachlan realized that he lost his backpack at ECA. Since he still had homework to finish in his backpack, he had to retrieve it.

It was pitch black outside, but Lachlan convinced Lilah to look for his backpack together. When they arrived the gymnasium, they saw many scary ghosts having a party around his backpack. Lachlan and Lilah asked politely for the backpack and got it back successfully.
