STAR COUNTER

Odon wanted to count all the stars but there were just too many of them. His mom called him in for supper. She asked him “What were you doing out there?”

“I was trying to count all the stars.”

“Huh”, his sister laughed.

“Hey mooom”

Sailly quickly said “Sorry.”

“Good. Now, why were you counting the stars?”

“Because I wanted to be the first person to count them all.”

After a few years Odon was finally the first person to count all the stars. He became famous, so he was loved by everyone, even his annoying sister in the end.
