One day, there was a group of a class from a school ready for a field trip.

For the field trip, they were going to Ocean park! for the first activity, they had a scavenger hunt around the aquarium. The teachers hid 5 items for each group to find, a compass, a killer whale pillow, a blend- in water globe, a cute mega size sticker, and a book about whales! The second activity was to fill out a bulletin board with printed pictures of animals ! The last activity was to watch a water animal perform and even touch it! Lastly they ate a good yummy Lunch. The end
