

The Case Of The Chinese Cheater

by Matt Lam, Tsz Nok, 3C

Cyrus formed the “HQXT detective agency” organization and I'm the first high tier member.

I found a chinese test cheat sheet in one of the caddies, and now we are investigating this case: "The case of the chinese cheater".

We need to search for evidence for this case. The writing of each student will be collected, to see whose handwriting is the same as the cheat sheet. We might have a few suspects, so we'll nail it down by doing a more sophisticated test. Once the criminal is found, he will be sent to a “fake” jail for 2 recesses.
