

My Chinese New Year

by

Jasper Au Yeung

3D

Attention! The dragon takes flight and the snake slithers in!

I had a chance of watching a captivating lion dance! Three dancing lions in red, pink and yellow ushered in the Chinese New Year, with the rhythmic sounds of drums, cymbals, and gongs. The yellow lion performed a backflip, while the pink one skillfully climbed on poles with different heights. A thrilling highlight of the lion dance was definitely a segment where the red lion jumped energetically to grab a lettuce dangled high above. The god of wealth also made an appearance, delighting everyone by handing out golden chocolate coins.

THE END

Readathon 2025 @ CAIS

