

Author: Charmaine Tiffany Cheng

Class: 4F

Mischievous Paul

There was this naughty boy named Paul, who loved playing with all kinds of balls.

One day this fellow went to a mall to throw balls.

Caused chaos and windows had to be re-installed.

Police came to collect Paul; the anxious boy was in tears desperate to make a phone call.

But his parents didn't pick up at all.

They were sightseeing the Great Wall and would not return till fall.

He was thrown into a detention hall.

Surrounded by tall and nasty men that made him feel small.

All these taught him a lesson, never again will he brawl.