

Readathon 100- word writing

The gift of the Jinyu Princess

In the mystical realm of Jinyu, Princess Lian was not just a royal but a warrior with a unique gift—she could read minds. When her kingdom faced invasion from the ruthless General Kaito, fear spread among the people. Determined to protect her homeland, Lian donned armor and joined the army.

In the heat of battle, she sensed Kaito's thoughts, predicting his every move. With her skillful swordplay and strategic mind, she led her troops to victory. Princess Lian chose to use her powers for peace, she proposed a council where every voice mattered, earning the respect of her people.