

Path Marker

Blessed be the one who follows the Shepherd
For they will never be trampled by canines
With trust and hope, their prayers be heard
We are the branches, and He is our vine

Things fall apart- according to the plan
Nothing is too slow for those who practice patience
We will get to our destination, with Him we can We will never be lost for we have our Path Marker providing us guidance